This mission directive prescribes the mission, organization, and responsibilities of the 34th Logistics Squadron, Headquarters United States Air Force Academy, Colorado.

1. Authority. AFI 38-101, as implemented by DAF/PE 680r, letter, 30 September 1994, Organization Actions Affecting Certain United States Air Force Academy Units, and Special Order Number GS-2, Headquarters US Air Force Academy, 21 October 1994.

2. Mission. Provides dedicated logistics support to the US Air Force Academy Cadet Wing.

3. Organization. The 34th Logistics Squadron is assigned to the Headquarters 34th Support Group. The 34th Logistics Squadron is comprised of the Housing Management Flight, Cadet Uniform Flight, and Program Management Flight.

4. Responsibilities. The 34th Logistics Squadron Commander:

- 4.1. Integrates functional responsibilities with the related logistics-support role of cadets in upper-class levels of training.
- 4.2. Manages two cadet dormitories, furniture repair, security, equipment, and supplies for the cadet squadrons.
- 4.3. Conducts procurement, tailoring, quality assurance, issue, and uniform maintenance support to the cadet wing.
- 4.4. Manages parking and vehicle registration, program management, facility management, ground safety, non-academic scheduling, and budget analysis for the 34 TRW.
- 4.5. The 34th Logistics Squadron Commander or the Headquarters 34th Support Group Commander, may impose nonjudicial punishment on enlisted members assigned to the 34th Logistics Support Squadron.

4.6. The Headquarters 34th Training Wing provides administrative and orderly room support for assigned personnel.

5. Relationship to Other Units or Agencies. Direct communication with other US Air Force Academy agencies, Headquarters US Air Force, Secretary of the Air Force, other US Air Force MAJCOMs, and other Department of Defense agencies and activities will normally be coordinated through the 34th Support Group. Direct time critical communications that support mission objectives are authorized and do not require the 34th Support Group coordination.
